The items must be returned unused and in original condition and packaging. Therefore, we do not accept returns without hangtags. Please note that the return is at your own risk and own expense, and therefore we recommend that you keep a postage receipt with tracking number to prove that the package was sent. The items are your responsibility until they reach our warehouse. Please make sure the returned items are packed safely to prevent any damage to the products. Please note the refund will be credited to the credit card originally used for purchase of the items, minus taxes or import duties incurred, if any. Be aware that MarMar Copenhagen does not exchange items, therefore, if you wish to change your purchase to e.g. a different size, color or style, please do so by placing a new order on our webshop.
